

641—128.3(145B) Expiration of authorization. An authorization will expire on June 30 of each year, but an institution may at any time apply for further authorization as provided herein for initial authorization.